

Statement under the UK Modern Slavery Act for the financial year ending 31 December 2019

This statement is published by the Ammega Group to meet the requirements of the United Kingdom Modern Slavery Act 2015, on behalf of our subsidiaries cited in the Appendix to this statement.

Our values and policies

The Ammega Group is opposed to all forms of modern slavery. Such exploitation is against the Ammega Group's commitment to respect human rights, as set out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and International Labour Organisation conventions.

The Ammega Group will not knowingly support or deal with any business, involved in modern-day slavery or human trafficking.

Our business

The Ammega Group is a global group of over 120 companies. We operate in 40 countries and employ around 5,000 staff.

We recognise the role of due diligence in bringing our commitments to life. Accordingly, our procurement and sales teams seek to develop relationships with counterparts who are committed to the Ammega Group's Code of Conduct, or to equivalent standards, through their activities and management of their suppliers and subcontractors.

In our standard purchasing and sales contracts, our counterparts must comply with all applicable laws and regulations, including those relating to respect for human rights.

This statement is approved by our Group Executive Committee and will be reviewed annually.
